2. Terms and Conditions of Sale

- 2.1 The Buyer acknowledges; that it purchases the Goods in the course of its business and not for private use; that it purchases the Goods in a competitive market and that the bargaining strength of the Seller was not a relevant fact; that it received no inducement to agree to any term herein; that it knows and understands the existence, extent and meaning of these conditions; that it knows and understands the restriction or exclusion of any rights given to it in this contract or by any of the implied or express conditions and warranties contained in the Sale of Goods Act 1979 and/or the Supply of Goods (Implied Terms) Act 1973 or any other enactment or any other principle in law or equity and that it accepts the restriction or exclusion of those conditions as being fair and reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the agreement.
- 2.2 The parties agree that these terms and conditions (together with any other terms and conditions expressly incorporated into this contract) represent the entire agreement between the parties relating to the sale and purchase of the Goods and that no statement or representation made by either party has been relied upon by the other in agreeing to enter into this contract.
- 2.3 The Seller's employees or agents are not authorised to make any representation concerning the Goods unless confirmed by the Seller in writing. In entering into the Contract the Buyer acknowledges that it does not rely upon any such representation which is not so confirmed.
- 2.4 Any advice or recommendation given by the Seller or its employees or agents as to the storage, application or use of the goods which is not confirmed in writing by the Seller is followed or acted upon entirely at the Buyer's own risk and the Seller shall not be liable for any such advice or recommendation which is not so confirmed.

- 2.6 These conditions exclude any other terms and conditions in any form of contract or Order or similar which are inconsistent with these conditions which the Buyer may seek to impose, even if such purports to exclude or supersede any terms and conditions inconsistent with them. - 3.4 The Seller reserves the right to make any reasonable changes in the specification of the goods which do not materially affect their quality or performance.
- 3.5 No order which has been accepted by the Seller may be cancelled by the Buyer except with the agreement in writing of the Seller and on the terms that the Buyer shall indemnify the Seller in full against all loss (including loss of profits), costs (including the cost of all labour and material used), damages, charges and expenses incurred by the Seller as a result of cancellation.
- 3.6 All extras and accessories ordered but not specified in the Seller's quotation will be charged for separately as will the costs of all tests, alterations, additions and other work undertaken at the Buyer's request.

5. Terms of Payment

- 5.1 Subject to any special terms agreed in writing between the Buyer and the Seller, the Seller shall be entitled to invoice the Buyer or any finance company acting on the Buyer's behalf for the price of the Goods and all other applicable monies before, on or at any time after delivery of the Goods.
- 5.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Seller, the Buyer shall be liable to pay the price of the Goods and all other applicable monies forthwith, notwithstanding that delivery of the Goods may not have taken place and the property in the Goods has not passed to the Buyer. The time of payment of the price and other relative monies shall be of the essence of the Contract. The Seller may, at its discretion, allow the Buyer to make payment of all relative invoices within 30 days of any such invoice.

Time for delivery shall not be of the essence unless previously agreed by the Seller in writing. The Buyer shall not restrict the time of delivery to normal working hours. The Goods may be delivered by the Seller in advance of the delivery date upon giving reasonable notice to the Buyer.
- 7.3 If the Goods are to be delivered in instalments, each delivery shall constitute a separate Contract and failure by the Seller to deliver any one or more instalment shall not entitle the Buyer to treat the Contracts as a whole as repudiated.

- 7.6 The Seller shall be entitled to exercise a right of suspension of the delivery of the Goods at any time and in the event of any such suspension the Seller may at its discretion require such security as it thinks fit or pre-payment of the price and all other monies outstanding and the payment of the price of any further delivery or deliveries.
